

BEGINNING / INTERMEDIATE SEWING CLASSES

by Roxane Gallaher

When: Tuesday Afternoons

Dates: June 6, 13, 20, 27, July 11, 18
(we will not meet July 4)

Time: Noon - 2pm

Place: Holy Family Academy
10580 Pineview Rd. Manassas, Va

Cost: $25 each,
$10 for each additional sibling,
parents welcome too

Maximum class size: 8 total

Beginning Sewing Class- Students will learn how to operate their sewing machine, cut fabric and sew a basic seam stitch. Items they could make will include but not limited to: an apron, baby quilt and or hand bag.

Intermediate Sewing Class- Students will learn how to read a pattern and construct a simple clothing item of their choice such as a pair of shorts, a skirt, or pajamas. Being able to follow the directions in the pattern will give your child the tools to sewing many items in the future.

Supplies: Students must provide their own sewing machine, fabric for projects and basic sewing kit: scissors, pins, tape measure, thread, etc.

I will supply iron and ironing board, sewing machine (in case yours is not working properly or you are sharing with a sibling), basic sewing supplies and supportive instruction.

Please call or text me for registration and more detail instruction 571-383-9173.
